

2011 National Art Competition Winners Announced!

The Chinese American Museum (CAM) in collaboration with the Chinese American Citizens Alliance (CACA) recently hosted the 2011 National Art Competition opened to students in the K-12 grade levels. Themed, Monkeys, Tigers, and Dragons, Oh My!, the contest encouraged participants to explore the symbolic meanings of their own Chinese zodiac signs and create original artwork through a variety of artistic media.

The selection of winners was conducted by a panel of independent judges; winning entries and some finalists will be exhibited in Los Angeles, San Francisco, and other regional locations where CACA Lodges are located.

We would like to proudly congratulate the winners of the 2011 National Art Competition:

Grand Prize Winners

Jessica Fung, Grade 2

May Song, Grade 11

Division 1 (Grade K – 3rd)

1st Place - Andrew Wang, Grade 3

2nd Place - Jessica Luo, Grade 3

3rd Place - Haocheng Mai, Grade 3

Division 2 (Grade 4th – 6th)

1st Place - Nicole Kim, Grade 5

2nd Place - Angela Liu, Grade 6

3rd Place - Lilian Y. Wang, Grade 5

Division 3 (Grade 7th – 9th)

1st Place - Vicki Xu, Grade 8

2nd Place - Rachel Wong, Grade 7

3rd Place - Catherine Yang, Grade 7

Division 3 (Grade 10th – 12th)

1st Place - Kenny Mok, Grade 10

2nd Place - Miceala Tu, Grade 11

3rd Place - Jessica Lin, Grade 10

Honorable Mentions

Zoe Lin Hughes, Grade 3

Lucy Liu, Grade 2

Carleen Gao, Grade 3

Kara Ge, Grade 3

Emily Su, Grade 5

Zen Tran, Grade 6

Ken Lien, Grade 7

Jennifer Ho, Grade 7

Stacy Tao, Grade 7

Melsia Sanft, Grade 11

Huining Gong, Grade 11

Sydney Chong, Grade 10