

Survival and Loss:

A Joint Discussion of Los Angeles and San Francisco Chinatowns

Thursday, March 7, 2019 6:30PM

Join California Historical Society and the Chinese American Museum at our host venue, LA Plaza de Cultura y Artes for a panel discussion on the dual creation, maintenance, preservation, and future of Los Angeles and San Francisco's Chinatowns. Historians, advocates, artists, and media specialists will explore how these two Chinatowns emerged, were threatened, survived, and thrived. We will also consider possible futures for both as well as posit how we all can better celebrate and support these two historic spaces. After the panel, join us at the Chinese American Museum for light snacks and a special evening viewing of their exhibitions. Panelists will include Cathy Gudis (Moderator) Nayan Shah, Eddie Wong, Steven Wong, and Judy Tzu-Chun Wu.

This free event is located at LA Plaza de Cultura y Artes, 501 North Main Street Los Angeles, CA 90012. Find out more & register at my.californiahistoricalsociety.org
